The Washington State Youth Summit seeks to engage youth in activities to encourage appreciation of history, culture and the natural environment; to foster involvement in preservation; and to cultivate leaders in the stewardship of the places that matter in Washington State.

TOPIC: Connecting Cultures: Exploring Washington State's Rich Hispanic and Latino Heritage

WHO: 6 Teachers & 35 Students, grades 7-12

WHERE: Yakima Valley and Mount Rainier National Park

PROGRAM: The first half of the program will include visits to important cultural and historic sites in the Yakima Valley, focusing on their significance to the Hispanic and Latino community. The second half of the program will take place at Mount Rainier National Park where participants will engage in recreational activities and interpretive natural history programs.
